

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of BIG BROTHER politics. The Republican Party loyalists have betrayed the spirit of true democracy. Responsible citizenship and patriotism does not use tactics better suited for Facist regimes.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies control the airwaves, we get more of what's good for the bottom line and less of what we need for our democracy. Instead of something produced at "News Central" far away, it's more important that we see real people from our own communities and more substantive news about issues that matter.

Sinclair's actions demonstrate the dangers of media control by a small, powerful minority whose disdain for the plight of the common people is abhorrent. Talk about lack of moral leadership! Shame on you.
